THE GLOBAL GOALS

For Sustainable Development

CONFERENCE DESCRIPTION

The Department of Letters and English Language at 8 May 1945 Guelma University is pleased to announce the First National Conference on the integration of United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) in teaching English as a foreign language. The goal of this conference is to create a platform bringing together teachers and researchers to share their own visions on integrating the SDGs in English language teaching and learning. This conference brings together professionals who share an interest in the roles that the English language plays in social, cultural, and economic development. The conference addresses issues of language and culture to link the concepts of English Language Learning (ELL), English Language Teaching (ELT), and the SDGs as a type of all-inclusiveness within the "3 Ps": Planet, People, and Profit.

CONFERENCE PANELS

The National Conference welcomes submissions on - but not limited to - the following themes:

First track: SDGs and Education in EFL; Emerging Education Technologies; Environmental Education and Cultural Inclusion

Second track: Challenges of Education in the Disadvantaged and Developing Contexts; Pedagogical Innovations; Multi-Access Learning for Student Engagement

Third track: Language Education; Cognitive Overload in Online Language Learning Classroom; Effective Language Education; Emotional-Psychological Type and Foreign Language Acquisition;

Fourth track: Learning Strategies and Skills; Reflective Thinking and Writing; Critical Thinking; Thinking Skills and Creativity.

Proposals on other topics related to teaching English as a foreign language may also be considered.
